

Terms for Consigning Ver. 1000 Effective after 6/15/2010

The Man Store Consignment

How Items are consigned. You are the consigner. The store is the consignee.

Consignment period is 90 days. See Reclaiming your item below. Un-sold items left after 120 days are abandoned by you and become property of The Man Store to recycle, sell or otherwise remove for disposal.

Percentage of commission Terms are set on individual accounts and individual items. The consignment ticket is part of this agreement and will be posted with any additional terms. Our percentage of the sale based on the actual price when sold. Consignment fees will range no less than 5% and no more than 30%

Condition of Items: All items are to be in working condition. Items that are found to be in none working order must be picked up within 30 days after the consigner has been contacted of faulty equipment. If item is not picked up within the allowed 30day period it becomes property of The Man Store to recycle or otherwise remove for disposal.

The Man Store may from time to time run a percentage off promotion which will discount any item up to 10%.

Reclaiming your item

Items can be reclaimed with no charge between 90 and 120 days from consignment ticket date. Items can be re-claimed prior to that by paying consignment fee. This acts a payment to Men's Exchange for space and advertising of item. Items donated for recycling will not be available to reclaim.

_____ (Initial)

Clearance of Goods

10% to 20% Discount Schedule:

The Retail Price of your item at times can be discounted by 10% to 20% according to store wide sale events. Items prices may be raised without notice during the consignment period. The Man Store reserves the right to re-price an item at any time information on value requires a re-assessment. The Man Store reviews the price of each item every 30 days.

_____ (Initial) for only 10%off

_____ (Initial) for up to 15%off

_____ (Initial) for up to 20%off

Payments are made after claim ticket for sold item is presented to clerk.

Allow time for check payments to clear before payment of item.

Payments may at times not be made during certain times of the month due to cash flow.

There is a charge of $3.00 for mailing commission payments.

_____ (Initial).

Liability: All goods are placed in the store at your request and remain your property items are only insured by you if you have your own insurance. The Man Store accepts no liability for any loss of any item through theft or damage or destruction of item. Even though we treat your items as our own while they are in our store as we all no things can happen no matter how careful we are.

Store hours are subject to change without notice. Store may be closed during normal operating hours for business or personal reasons from time to time.

Name: _____

Signature: _____ Date: _____

The consignment period is 90 (ninety) days. No commission is paid on items sold after ninety days

Do not consign an item if you do not agree with this standard consignment business process.

Do not consign an item if you are not the legal owner of item or have written approval from owner to sell.